Hosted by Adirondack Climate Outreach and Resilence Network (ACORN)

Adirondack Flood Resilience Project

An opportunity to address flood concerns and build resilience through gaming and photography in the Keene Valley community.

November 20th 3:30-5:30 pm:
Game Night & Intro to Photovoice

at Keene Valley Public Library (10928 NYS Route 9N)

- Pizza and desert provided!

December 7th 6:30-7:30 pm:
Virtural Intro to Photovoice

via ZOOM https://plattsburgh.zoom.us/j/81975374401

Janurary 27th 3:30-5:30 pm:
Photovoice: Share & Discussion

at Keene Valley Public Library (10928 NYS Route 9N)

- Pizza and desert provided!

Game Nights

- Understand flooding and its impacts on communities
- Collaborate to make decisions on flooding scenarios to explore and develop climate resilience strategies

Photovoice

- Express your personal and community experiences with flooding and climate resilience through photos and discussion
- Project will culminate into a photo exhibit

Learn more and Register Here!

Project Partners:

ESF

PAUL SMITH'S COLLEGE ADIRONDACK WATERSHED INSTITUTE

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK PLATTSBURGH

ADIRONDACK COUNCIL PRESERVING WATER, AIR AND WILDLANDS

Sponsored by The Nature Conservancy New York